the benefit HO ARE VAGRANTS? those who may be inte sted we publish from the enrolled bill kindly furnished us by Hon. Minor Secretary of State, to copy from, the law definition of vagrancy. Let those who recognize themselves in the picture reform: "Every person (Indians excepted) without visimeans of living who has the physical ability to work and who does not for the space of ten days make proper in-quiry for and use due diligence to seek employment nor labor where employment is offered him; every healthy beg-gar who solicits alms as a business; every person who roams about from place to place without any lawful business: every idle or dissolute person or associate of known thieves, who wanders about the streets at late or unusual hours of the night; or who lodges in any barn, shed, shop, outhouse, or place other than such as is kept for lodging purposes, without the permission of the owner or party entitled to the possession thereof; check guerilla," i. e., one who frequents gambling rooms and solicits money or the checks used therein to represent money obtained thereby; every lewd and dissolute male person who lives in and about houses of ill fame; and every common drunkard is a vagrant, and punishable by imprison-ment in the county jail not to exceed ninety days. The County Commission-ers may also require those convicted of vagrancy to do public work.

POSTMASTER Deichman from Empire was in town, yesterday, and gave us his story of the late shooting in his usually quiet little town by the river side. He into Dutch Nick's saloon, and tumbled Black, a wood chopper from Pine Nut, out of an oaken chair which he retained in his grasp and flourishe, breaking a pane of glass. Schneider who was tend-ing bar told him he would have to pay for his prank. He cursed Schneider and went over to Shoemaker's. About half-past 10 o'clock Schneider went over to Shoemaker's also where Nick was playing poker to give up the key and guardian pistol of his proprietor's saloon before going to bed. He was taking a drink with several whom he invited to join him, when Kyle came up and while cursing furiously began to hammer him in the face with a big whisky tumbler. Schneider drew his pistol and it went off in his hands without aim, striking S. E. Jones, not in the thigh as reported but in the neighborhood, making a slight flesh wound. The second shot struck Kyle in the breast and plowed its way through the flesh, stopping under the left shoulder. The ball was extracted. Kyle remains in a critical condition and at last reports was spitting up blood.

ESSES. DAVIS & GILLSON in store, with the enlargements lately made the most capacious in the State, offer to the people of Carson and abroad the very finest selection of an almost endless variety of goods at wholesale and retail. They purchase in immense quantities and sell cheap They have numerous clerks to attend your orders promptly and Johnson with his magnificent team to take parcels to your houses in every art of the town. Their immense stock comprises groceries, wines, liquors and provisions of every sort; flour, ground feed, oats, bran, shorts, middlings; clothing, hats, boots, shoes; tinware, woodenware, crockery, stoves, hardware; agricultural implements, plows, etc.; California lime, Nevada lime, coment, plaster paris, plasterer's hair, windows, window blinds, doors. They have also four hundred thousand shingles; two hundred thousand feet of clear lumber of different dimensions. If you want to be treated well and make the best pargains call on Davis & Gillson.

GEORGE FRYER, we notice and so has everybody else that had oceasion to stroll around the Ormsby House in the glorious atmosphere of yesterday morning, has platformed the mud in front of his hotel. We do not mean to set this display of enterprise in comparison with that labor of Hercules by which those huge mythical stables were purged, but, as on principle he is a benefactor to the race who makes two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, as well as the man whose genius made steam a propelling agent, so comes in Fryer for praise as a philanthropist, not as a Howard exactly, but as one who rightly loves at once to see people comfortable about him, and to promote the interests of a first class hotel. If some of the thriving merchants in his neighborhood, and not in his neighborhood would follow his example, strangers would have less reason to be disgusted with the condition of our streets.

Some of the nastiest, or, if you please, "nicest" little jobs put up in the course of legislation just ended, begin to leak ut. A man unskilled in certain peculiar dark ways came to the Capital while the Legislature was in session with an evidently just and proper claim for re-lief. He was made to believe by a committee clerk that his chances for relief were doubtful, but that he (the commitee clerk) could fix it-for an assignment of a fair share of the claim, which was made and yielded up. The bill passed, as it would have done, the committee clerk notwithstanding, probably, but we are happy to state that the petitioner for elief was induced by a friend to make nother assignment covering the whole mount whereby the claim was saved to himself, to whom it was due, and Mr. ommittee Clerk bilked. This is one of the "nice" little jobs. More anon.

A few only of the Legislators remain in Carson. The rest have gone away, ne directly home, but the majority to ian Francisco where they propose to seek relaxation after their "arduous labors" and then return in health and rigor to the ......... . h.ir constituency.

THEATER .- As will be seen by perusing the advertising columns of this morning's APPEAL, John Piper has completed an engagement with Miss Marian Mordannt. This celebrated Protean artiste will entertoin our show goers at the Carson Theater for three nights only. Tuesday evening next she will appear in her great speciality of "Darling," or "Woman and Her Master." Tuesday evening "Hearts are Trumps;" nesday evening, "Ireland as It Is;" to conclude with the Lopular farce of "Betsy Baker." Miss Mordaunt is said to be an excellent singer and dancer, and will no doubt take well in Carson. Secure seats early.

The vacated chambers of legislation present a scene of confusion, now, with stationery, old bills, bits of manuscript, etc., scattered about on the floor. The fires in the furnaces have been allowed to go out, and members and attaches who still lingering go ever and anon to visit their old stamping ground, find the air chilly and crawl off again down stairs endeavoring to cast off the attraction which the scent of the place still has with the flowers departed.

SENATOR CLEVELAND, better known as 'Cleve," presented a card with the photograph of his fine physiognomy on one side to Dr. Hazlett, who got Tom Carson to set off the other side with an historical sketch representing one of Heyward's bulls with curled tail standing midway of the track while a C. P. engine comes rattling and whizzing down upon him. The Doctor smiles over that picture and looks on either side with equal joy.

MANY INDIANS were maudlin drunk, yesterday afternoon, and made the front street lively for awhile by their sensational talk and walk. They drank wine, they said, and got it up town. The positive law of the statute books meets this case, but will not be enforced, probably, for want of information against the lawbreakers. The penalty for cruelty to animals might be inflicted upon those, we presume, who make Indians beasts.

COMPLIMENTARY .- The jolly host of says that Jones, the teamster, was not in the Ormsby House tells us that the the row. Jack Kyle was drunk, came Legislators, and those coming with them, have this time paid up their bills to the last cent. Two years ago when the preceding Legislature went away, he says, he was out three thousand dollars. The members from the wild regions of White Pine have behaved in a very exemplary manner this time, and George wants them to have a "shot" to that effect.

> O. P. Willis has just received a large and varied assortment of garden and flower seeds warranted fresh and genuine, which he offers to sell cheap. Be ready with a supply of the above for the opening of planting season. Mr. Willis keeps on hand a large and complete stock of drugs, medicines and perfumery which he sells to suit his customers cheap. His colognes, etc., are excellent.

The epizootic is becoming general in Carson. Horses may be seen here and there affected with it. When taken with the disease they cough, expectorate freely, and run at the nose. We understand that the stage horses of Ladd & Billings are affected by the disease—their staging not being interfered with, however.

PERSONAL.-Major McCoy, the elderly and dignified Senator from Lander, bid good bye to our town, yesterday, looking faint and wearied by the work of legislation in which he has taken a restlessly active part. No one is more respected than the Major for honor and usefulness as a representative of the people.

U. S. BRANCH MINT REPORT.-The treasurer of the Carson City Branch Mint, shipped through Wells, Fargo & Co., of Carson, to San Francisco, by train last night, eleven bars of unparted gold and silver, worth together the sum of $40,000—to the credit of the Crown Point mine, Gold Hill.

THERE will be a union Bible meeting in the Methodist church this evening at 71/4 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Richardson the Bible agent will address the meeting in behalf of the American Bible Society. No evening service in the Episcopal or Presbyterian church.

THE back room of Winston's Exchange was lively last night things being changed somewhat and a long keno table set in position. The game was lively, and while one man took in the pot the other fellows grinned and described the game.

CANDIDATES for the office of State Prison Warden are spoken of as follows: Jas. A. St. Clair, James Hume, Carson, Sam Hyatt, Gold Hill; P. C. Hyman Pioche; A. K. Lamb, Washoe; Warren Wasson, Carson.

THE entertainment at the Rink last night was a delightful success. More than forty couples were present and the dancing passed off elegantly. The same occurs now every Saturday night.

Fox has a fresh supply of new music sentimental, comic, and operatic taste-fully ornamented with photographs of world renowned singers. He wishes his lady friends to know this.

Lost, a gold glove fastener, between the Ormsby House and Rosenstock's store. Please return to this office.

No service in the Methodist church this morning. Union prayer meeting in the evening at 7:30. The soirce Friday night, at the Turner Hall, was largely attended and passed off very pleasantiy.

A GOLD RING, lost at the Citizens ball, may be obtained by calling at the Corbett House.

R. FRED. BROOKS, bookseller, sta-tioner and newsdealer, dealer in cheap jewelry, cutlery, toys, musical instru ments, fancy goods, imported segars and tobacco. Agency for the Royal Havana lottery, Omaha lottery, Nevada State lottery, opposite the Ormsby House next door to Rail's hardware store, Carson City, Nevada.
